RULESET

Get to know new friends better or recover memories with old ones in this casual storytelling game. You need at least three people to play it with!

Contents:

20 cards

1 hourglass

Purpose of the game:

Gather friends both old and new to tell tales to the judge! Follow the judge's criteria and you might get a card - when you have as many cards as there are players, you win the game!

Cards:

Each card has a theme and 3 suggestions about the topic.

scannable AR

The backside of each card has a scannable AR that gives you special tokens to the GeoBasketSurfers game.

How to play:

- One player - the judge - takes a card from the stack, and cites the card's theme out loud (art? music? food? who knows!).
- They then decide on a criteria to judge the stories told by the players (prettiest? loudest? strangest? the judge knows...).
- Each of the other players (not the judge!) gets to speak, restricted by the time in the hourglass.
- After all are done, the judge decides which one best followed the criteria and awards the card to the winner.
- The judging role rotates based on player sitting order (whichever direction the group prefers), and the process repeats.

The winner:

- First player to reach the number of players in cards, wins!
